Salary Determination

- The ODNI uses a rank-in-person system in which rank is attached to the individual. A selected ODNI candidate or other Federal Government candidate will be assigned to the position at the employee's current GS grade and salary.
- A current Federal Government employee, selected for a detail, will be assigned to the position at his or her current grade and salary.

Component Mission

The National Counterproliferation Center (NCPC) coordinates strategic planning with the Intelligence Community (IC) to enhance intelligence support to the United States (U.S.) efforts to stem proliferation of weapons of mass destruction and related delivery systems. It works with the IC to identify critical intelligence gaps or shortfalls in collection, analysis, or exploitation; and develop solutions to ameliorate or close these gaps. It also works with the IC to identify long-term proliferation threats and requirements and develop strategies to ensure the IC is positioned to address these threats and issues. NCPC reaches out to elements both inside and outside the IC and the U.S. Government (USG) to identify new methods or technologies that can enhance the capabilities of the IC to detect and defeat future proliferation threats.

Major Duties and Responsibilities (MDRs)

- Organize and lead efforts to translate the CP community's collection and exploitation requirements into current and long-term programs to produce new technical capabilities.
- Advise NCPC senior leadership on analytical budgetary/funding issues and tradecraft challenges affecting IC and DoD agencies.
- Lead and oversee efforts to engage senior IC leadership on strategic priorities, intelligence needs and gaps, and cross-IC interdependencies in order to link resources to strategy.
- Support briefings to senior IC officials and other major stakeholders on collaboration progress, issues and challenges.

Mandatory and Educational Requirements

- Expert knowledge of IC organizations; IC mission posture, structures, capabilities, processes, and policy development.
- Background in nuclear material production processes, associated chemical processes, and associated production technologies.
- Superior ability to lead interagency planning efforts for complex interagency projects, taking into account a diverse range of considerations and ensuring that the activities can be successfully completed.
- Superior analytical and critical thinking skills, including the superior ability to think strategically, identify needs and requirements, develop recommendations, and evaluate outcomes against goals and objectives.
- Superior interpersonal skills and superior ability to work effectively in both independent and in a team or collaborative environment.

- Superior ability to exercise independent judgment on time-sensitive issues and work collaboratively across the IC.

Desired Requirements

- Superior oral and written communication skills, including superior ability to draft and edit written reports of varying length and complexity, and to communicate effectively with audiences of varying seniority and expertise.
- Superior ability to anticipate issues relevant to the IC and United States Government and recommend/implement needed actions.
- Superior leadership skills and ability to lead interagency working groups, build coalitions with IC elements to achieve common goals.
- Superior ability to manage strategic and tactical level topics, and develop innovative recommendations and solutions for improvement.
